NEW FINISHES

For Your Sliding Door System

At Serenity, we understand how important your project timeline is, and the lead times that can affect it. That's why we now stock black anodized aluminum!

A Variety of Selections

Through bringing in black anodized aluminum, we're able to provide more options sooner. By supplying these extrusions, Serenity now can offer this option with standard lead times. In addition to this change, we're also stocking 8 different Powder Coating colors. These selections have been handpicked to include the industry's most loved architectural finishes.
